 T
 The Lenten season is always very busy with the many activities in our church. I would like to thank each of you for making room in your schedule to be a part of our Lent and Holy Week services. They were all well-attended, and in an environment where the church is having a difficult time competing with the secular world, that says much for our congregation. Having these services demands rehearsals, studying, preparation and work at home, decorating, cleaning, cooking, coming early and staying late, and prioritizing your time. For all of this, I am most appreciative. We are the body of Christ, and each member is important and contributing. Thank you for worshipping at Silverstreet Lutheran Church. In His service, Mary Ann
